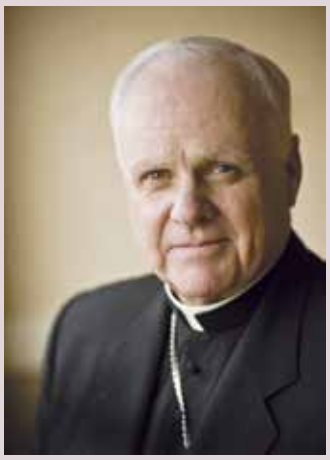
"Give Yourself to God"

Mt 6:24

A Message from Apostolic Administrator Edwin O'Brien



Dear Friends in Christ,

There are occasions when I am truly inspired and moved by the generosity, selflessness and sacrifice of my fellow Catholics. The response to this year's Archbishop's Annual Appeal is one such occasion. We witnessed a response that rightly emulated the example of our Savior Jesus Christ.

The people of our archdiocese saw the need of those less fortunate and shared their blessings, responding without hesitation to this year's call to "Give Yourself to God." This is especially impressive given the fact that the challenges of the current economy have touched virtually everyone's lives. While this situation has increased the need for assistance, it has also, in many cases, diminished the wherewithal of even those among us who are most blessed. Yet the financial and spiritual support we have received has been overwhelming.

This year's Appeal was supported by more than 36,000 donors and raised more than $8.5 million in pledges. The significance of this level of success is tremendous. The generosity shown toward others raises the spirits of our archdiocese as a whole, it unifies our Catholic family in aiding our community and it enables us to have a tangible and positive impact on the lives of so many who have come to our door seeking compassion and comfort from us.

Here, you will find a comprehensive accounting of the results of the Appeal, enabling you to appreciate the true magnitude of giving we received. Also, you will find the beneficiaries of the noteworthy generosity of the members of our archdiocese.

I would like to express my deep-felt gratitude to our Pastors, Pastoral Life Directors, Priests, Archbishop's Annual Appeal Committee members and to all those who gave of themselves in contributing to the success of the 2011 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. May God bless you all.

In the Lord,

† Edwin F. O'Brien
Apostolic Administrator
