Archbishop Lori offers prayers for city leadership

Archbishop William E. Lori made the following statement today:

“At this challenging time in the life of our City, we pray that God gives strength and wisdom to our acting mayor and to the leaders of our community in order that they might bring the residents of Baltimore together in confronting our challenges, while also asserting those aspects that represent our promise and true potential, for the advancement and good of all.”

— Archbishop William E. Lori