

7 Quick Takes Friday: Our Lenten prayer basket, Wawa's for dinner, bunnies, flextangles, and efficiency at the dentist's office

So far, my favorite Lenten activity this year is our prayer basket. Drawing a name out every morning is so exciting. And, by exciting, I mean we argue over whose turn it is. That's when you know a prayer basket is a success, right? When people are arguing every morning?