

Archbishop makes surprise announcement

Archbishop Edwin F. O'Brien had people buzzing Feb. 26 in his homily during the ordination of transitional Deacon Warren Tanghe.

In speaking to Warren, he casually announced that the former Anglican priest would be ordained a Catholic priest June 25. No one knew it was coming, including Deacon Tanghe.

More to come on CatholicReview.org...