

Audio: Archbishop Chaput addresses religious liberty fight, sexual abuse crisis

In an address to the Catholic Media Convention in Indianapolis, Archbishop Charles Chaput laid out why the Catholic Church and the U.S. Bishops is fighting for religious liberty and locked in a standoff with President Obama's administration over the HHS mandate. In addition, Archbishop Chaput addressed how the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is recovering from the sexual abuse crisis.

Listen to his talk, in full, now: