

Audio of Archbishop Dolan addressing teens in Madrid

MADRID- Archbishop Timothy Dolan, president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and Archbishop of New York, addressed English-speaking young people Wednesday in Madrid in a catechesis forum at San Ricardo parish. He also celebrated Mass. Archbishop Dolan was as hyped: personable, funny, charming and a good teacher. He even held a crying baby. I will post audio of his question and answer session later. Until then, here is his catechesis talk today in audio format.
