

Audio of Monsignor Charles Pope's Rally for Life homily

Monsignor Charles Pope, a priest in the Archdiocese of Washington, had people on their feet Jan. 23 at the Rally for Life Mass inside the Verizon Center. His homily was a call to action for the estimated 17,000 teens who were ready to participate in the March for Life.

In case you missed it, here's your chance to listen to his homily.