

Baltimore native elected superior general of Missionary Servants

A priest who graduated from St. Rose of Lima School, Baltimore, in the 1960s was recently elected superior general of the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity.

Baltimore native Father John Edmunds, S.T., 58, was elected May 29 at the Congregation's General Chapter, in Holy Trinity, Ala.

Ordained in 1976, Father Edmunds has served in pastoral assignments in California, Mississippi, Louisiana, and most recently had been pastor of Christ the King, Jersey City, N.J.