

Cardinal leads Good Friday procession

Catholic Review blogger Rita Buettner shares her first experience with the Good Friday Way of the Cross procession from the Shrine of St. Alphonsus in Baltimore to Planned Parenthood on Howard Street. Cardinal Edwin F. O'Brien led the morning walk, where participants prayed the Sorrowful Mysteries of the rosary.

Read her blog here:

<https://www.catholicreview.org/blogs/open-window/2012/04/06/following-the-cross>