

Catholic Men's Fellowship Conference April 2

The Catholic Men's Fellowship of Maryland will host its annual conference April 2 in Towson. It will take place in Immaculate Conception School's auditorium and cafeteria, which are housed in the former Towson Catholic High School.

The organization works to promote parish-driven men's fellowship. Guest speakers include best-selling author and ProBalance CEO David Durand; Father Michael Lightner, the director of the University of Wisconsin's campus ministry; and Father Paul Nicholson, a pastor from the Diocese of London, Ontario.

Archbishop Edwin F. O'Brien will celebrate the closing Mass. The sacrament of reconciliation will be available prior to Mass. Doors open at 8 a.m., with donuts and bagels served. The conference will run from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Registration is $40, $20 for college and high school students, and includes lunch.

For more information, visit catholicmensfellowship.com or call 410-262-5737.