

Clear church teaching on prolife issues is needed

Where can we go to get the clear Catholic Church's teachings and stay properly informed?

Nancy Pelosi has stated that the question of life should not interfere with a woman's "right to choose." When such worldly statements are made and even condoned, where are your articles saying it is not only wrong but a serious sin?

Chris Korzen, director of Catholics United, said that Senator Biden has a history of seeking practical ways of addressing abortion that appeal to the broad spectrum of people. How can the taking of a million unborn lives be met in a practical way? I ask you?
