

Coverage of new archbishop excellent

Thank you, thank you for such an excellent special edition on our new archbishop (CR, Oct. 4). It was a joy to read. I have a much fuller understanding of the man and the priest who will now be our good shepherd. The pictures too gave us a wonderful spectrum of his personality. I shall keep this edition and read and reread it as the future unfolds, hopefully in a blending of the old love of the church and our priests and religious and a fuller understanding of the Second Vatican Council.
