

Dr. Nazelrod completes leadership program

Dr. Barbara D. Nazelrod, president of The Catholic High School of Baltimore, recently completed an eight-month leadership development program sponsored by Leadership Maryland.

Dr. Nazelrod was one of 52 Leadership Maryland graduates who were honored at a reception and banquet held Dec. 4 at the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel in Baltimore.

Leadership Maryland, an independent, educational leadership development organizations, informs executives from the public and private sectors about the critical issues facing the State of Maryland and the surrounding region.