

Father Austin Murphy breaks it down, Potter-style

This is just too cool not to share. Father Austin Murphy, director of vocations for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, delivered this homily to young people attending the High School Leadership Institute.

Few priests can weave messages of Harry Potter and Jesus so effortlessly.