

Father Sikorsky installed as president of Arlington institute

Father Charles Sikorsky, L.C., an alumnus of Calvert Hall College High School in Towson, was inaugurated president of The Institute for the Psychological Sciences in Northern Virginia in a Feb. 9 Mass and ceremony at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. Father Sikorsky is the institute's third president.

Father Sikorsky earned degrees from The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, the University of Maryland School of Law, Baltimore, and the Pontifical University Regina Apostolorum in Rome. He also completed a licentiate in canon law at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome.

Founded in 1999, The Institute for the Psychological Sciences offers masters of science degrees in general and clinical psychology and a doctor of psychology in clinical psychology.