

Fellows program seeks applicants

Applications are being accepted until Nov. 7 for the 2008-2009 seventh class of the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Fellows Program, a leadership development program for nonprofit executive directors in Maryland. The sixth group of Weinberg Fellows will graduate in October 2008.

Eligible applicants must be an executive director or a person in a top staff position of a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization focusing on helping disadvantaged Maryland residents. The program is facilitated by the Schaefer Center for Public Policy at the University of Baltimore.

Applications are available online at www.weinbergfellows.org.
