

Fortnight for Freedom events offered in Archdiocese of Baltimore

By Catholic Review Staff

The Archdiocese of Baltimore will mark the Fortnight for Freedom, a two-week period designated by the U.S. bishops as a time for reflection on religious liberty, with the following events:

June 23

9:30 a.m. - Eucharistic Adoration at Holy Family Catholic Church, Randallstown
Eucharistic adoration will be dedicated to praying for religious liberty in the nation and around the world, followed by Benediction at 4 p.m.

June 25

9:30 p.m. - Eucharistic adoration at Holy Family Catholic Church, Randallstown
Eucharistic adoration will be dedicated to praying for religious liberty in the nation and around the world, followed by Benediction at 4 p.m.

Noon - Patriotic Rosary Shamrock Park (Intersection of Lee Way and McCormick Street, Bel Air)

The rosary will be prayed for religious freedom.

June 30

7 p.m. - Fortnight for Freedom Living Rosary at St. Mary of the Assumption, Pylesville

A living rosary will be offered for religious freedom.

July 4

12:10 p.m.

Fortnight for Freedom Closing Mass National Shrine, Washington D.C.

Parishioners from the Archdiocese of Baltimore are encouraged to attend this event with others from across the nation.

July 7

7:30 a.m.

Religious Freedom: Tremendous Global Challenges and Opportunities Charles Carroll House, Annapolis

Brian Grimm will deliver a lecture on religious freedom.

Read more stories about religious freedom here.