

Frederick students make lunch, times 2,000

By Catholic Review Staff

Across the state, schools in the Archdiocese of Baltimore participated in a variety of events to celebrate Catholic Schools Week (Jan. 29-Feb. 5). Students at St. John's Catholic Prep in Frederick marked the week by making more than 2,000 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches during their theology classes for the Frederick Rescue Mission.