

From El Salvador, student Skypes with classmates at St. Michael the Archangel School

By Elizabeth Lowe

ELowe@CatholicReview.org

Antonio Gomez, a first-grader at St. Michael the Archangel School, is in El Salvador with his mother, Jeanette Gomez, until July 1.

Jeanette, coordinator of English for Speakers of Other Languages at Prince George's Community College in Largo, was awarded a Fulbright Scholar grant to teach English and work on professional development for English teachers at Universidad Catolica de El Salvador in Santa Ana. The grant is through the U.S. Department of State.

Antonio, who is attending school in the Central American country, is communicating with his St. Michael classmates via Skype, email and written correspondence.

Also see:

Overlea parish, school share special relationship

Gifted students get boost at Catonsville school