

Gibbons School will be missed

As the wife of a deceased assistant principal, a teacher there for 10 years myself, the mother of two Cardinal Gibbons graduates who received an outstanding preparation for their place in this world and the mother of the cheerleading mascot, who is now Sister Jane Frances, a Nashville Dominican, I say:

“Thank you, Lord, for the many gifts that Cardinal Gibbons provided for our family over the last 40 years. The school’s closing breaks my heart. I feel so bad for the current students who will not have the opportunities and the experiences that my sons had. It’s truly like losing an old friend.”
