

Loyola Blakefield students go on Talent Tour

Remember the old Bob Hope USO shows? If not, then you're young. Back in the day, Bob Hope was a world-famous actor/comedian who also dedicated his time to entertaining the armed forces. Well, Loyola Blakefield put their own spin on it with a five-day tour that spanned a couple of cities in early June. The story will be up soon on CatholicReview.org. For right now, check out some of their talents!
