

New video series: Baltimore pilgrim shares joy of WYD

MADRID – In last week's Catholic Review, I did a preview of World Youth Day that started out with Marimar Trejo, a Mexican immigrant. She was the only immigrant able to come on the trip with the archdiocese and represented many people here in Madrid. In this video, with the backdrop of the same stage the Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, used yesterday, Marimar shared the joy of being at World Youth Day, this time in Spanish for her brethren back home. There will be more posted soon.
