

New video Series: Baltimore young adult joyful at WYD

Keisha Miles, a young adult from St. Veronica's parish, was waiting for Pope Benedict XVI's arrival in Madrid for World Youth Day and took some time to share how excited she was about being just 200 yards away from where the pope would speak to more than one million people.