MADRID – Surely you watched Pope Benedict XVI’s arrival in Madrid today for World Youth Day and his address to the more than one million attendees. If you’re from the Archdiocese of Baltimore, you’ll want to check out this album on The Catholic Review’s Facebook page. Not a fan? Just click “like” and you can see the album and more content. It was a jam-packed day and more is coming on the blog front here, including video testimonials.

Again, to see the photo album from today, click on this link and see World Youth Day photos.
