

Priest was example of apostleship

I wanted to add something to the article regarding Father John Delclos (CR, May 10).

His phone ministry was an absolute comfort. It was so kind of him to give a daily reflection on the readings for the day. Not only were the reflections helpful, but also his soothing, gentle voice added to the spiritual enrichment. He certainly was a fine example of apostleship. God bless him.