

Sacred Heart of Jesus carnival draws crowd

By Catholic Review Staff

Hundreds of parishioners and community members turned out June 18 through June 23 for the annual Sacred Heart of Jesus parish carnival in Highlandtown held at the church despite a heatwave that sent temperatures soaring to near 100 degrees. The carnival featured a food court, children's rides, games and a flea market.

Click on the arrows below to see a slideshow from staff photographer Tom McCarthy Jr.

Copyright (c) June 29, 2012 CatholicReview.org