

SFA students reflect on Black History Month

Students from historic St. Frances Academy in Baltimore walk in the footsteps of Mother Mary Lange each day. She risked her life to educate black children and founded their school. Sitting in the Mother Mary Lange room inside St. Frances, students reflected on Black History Month, who makes a difference in their lives and how they will contribute to society as well.

Watch below:

a