

Sister Eva Boudreau, S.U.S.C., dies

A funeral Mass was offered for Sister Eva Boudreau, S.U.S.C., Aug. 29 in Fall River, Mass. Sister Eva died Aug. 27. She was 85.

One of three siblings who all entered the same order, she taught at St. Edward School, John XXIII Center, Rosa Parks School and was a librarian at Ss. James and John School, Baltimore. From 1983 to 2003 she served as a remedial reading teacher and office assistant at St. William of York School, Baltimore. She also taught and served as principal in schools in New Jersey, North Carolina and Rhode Island.