

Sixteen From Central Region to Receive Archdiocesan Medal of Honor Sunday

On Sunday, January 27, 2002, during a Mass that begins at 3:00 p.m. at St. Ann Church in Hagerstown, MD, Bishop W. Francis Malooly, Western Vicar for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, will award Archdiocesan Medals of Honor to 16 persons from 12 different parishes scattered across the central region of Maryland. At least 10 additional priests will be in attendance, including the pastors from most of the parishes with honorees.

Those to be honored include:

Loretta Adelsberger - St. Joseph, Emmitsburg

Myra Binau - St. Joseph, Hagerstown

Chris and Kathy Cashiola - Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Thurmont

Helen Hose - St. Joseph, Hagerstown

Maureen Jennings - St. John the Evangelist, Frederick

Judith and Stephen Kowalski - Holy Family Catholic Community, Middletown

Albert Lopez - St. Joseph-on-Carrollton Manor, Buckeystown

Frank A. Miglio - St. Francis of Assisi, Brunswick

Bonnie and Donald Rohr - St. John the Evangelist, Frederick

Mary and Hugh Schneider - St. Ignatius Loyola, Ijamsville

Robert A. Seidel, Sr. - St. Joseph, Emmitsburg

Ralph Snyder - St. Anthony Shrine, Emmitsburg

Betty Sundstrom - St. Ann, Hagerstown

Anthony Thim - St. Augustine, Williamsport

Marion Joan Thomas - St. Peter, Hancock

The Archdiocesan Medal of Honor is awarded to men and women in the Archdiocese of Baltimore in recognition of their outstanding service to the Archdiocese and their respective parishes or institutions.

Point of contact is Matt Lane, 410-547-5379.