

Ss. Protus and Hyacinth

Ss. Protus and Hyacinth were brothers and servants in the house of St. Eugenia in Rome. The brothers were arrested and burned alive for their faith, circa 257 in Rome. Pope Damasus wrote the brothers' epitaph.