

St. Agnes extends invitation to fallen away Catholics

St. Agnes, Catonsville, is inviting Catholics who have become inactive in the church to take another look at the church. If individuals have friends or family members who have “fallen away” and are not sure how to reach out to them, members of the Catholics Returning Home team at St. Agnes would be pleased to contact them and extend a personal invitation. Participants will also have an opportunity to share their stories with people who will really listen. The series runs for five Tuesdays beginning on April 24th at 7 p.m. Some topics include: “the Church Today,” “Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist,” and “What Catholics believe.” For more information or to have a team member contact a friend or family member, call 410-744-2900. Advance registration for the program is recommended but not required.
