

St. Bathildis

St. Bathildis lived circa 680. She was enslaved in the Frankish kingdom, but eventually joined the court of King Clovis II. She married the king in 649. The king and queen had three sons, Clotaire III, Childeric II and Thierry III. Bathildis founded a Benedictine convent and a monastery.