

St. Benedict parishioners in tune with Christmas

Parishioners of St. Benedict in Baltimore will take to the streets in song Dec. 18 as they go caroling through the neighborhood. They will be singing from 1 to 4 p.m. and will provide blessed Christmas cookies to all homes visited.

"We did this last year with a powerful response from the community," said parishioner Joe Ford.

From 5 to 8 p.m., a special program will be held in front of the church at 2612 Wilkens Ave. A searchlight will be positioned over the church, highlighting a live nativity, a hospitality table and the caroling on the steps of the church.
