

St. Ignatius to hold 18th annual interfaith service

A Baltimore New Year's Eve tradition will be renewed at historic St. Ignatius Church, Calvert and Madison Streets, when the 18th Annual Interfaith Service will be held Dec. 31 at 8 p.m. Jewish, Muslim and Christian faiths will be represented during the hour-long prayer service.

Imam Earl El-Amin of the Baltimore Muslim Community Center will deliver the sermon. Governor Martin O'Malley and Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake will participate.

Admission is free but required tickets may be obtained by calling 410-727-3848 or emailing parish@st-ignatius.net.
