

Statement of Archbishop Lori on violence in Charlottesville

Our deepest prayers go out to those killed and wounded in Charlottesville, VA.

We must all work together to end the scourge of racism and unite for the common good of all.

Racism must be countered with love and respect.