

Superpowers activate!

Brad Farmer is delivering a Catholic pep talk to BYCC teens that would make a high school football coach jealous.

He's going full Uncle Ben Parker right now, talking about the responsibility of being a Catholic teen hero. Who will become Spider-Man after this weekend?

"You know your jobs, superheroes. Become who you were created to be," Farmer said.