

Tony, Tony, Tony turn around...

This is real short, but I thought I'd share it. Two nights ago, we were sitting in our hotel in Madrid during the last night before we left World Youth Day. St. Veronica's young people had gone out to the city and were a few minutes late for a prayer gathering we were doing at a nearby plaza. So, the rest of the Archdiocese of Baltimore contingent did a fun little prayer to St. Anthony. Guess who showed up a minute later...
