

Video: Ever seen a cardinal carry a cross with youths?

Cardinal Edwin F. O'Brien was among the hundreds of people at the annual Archdiocese of Baltimore Youth and Young Adult Pilgrimage through the streets of Baltimore City March 31. The cardinal, who led his final pilgrimage as the head of the archdiocese, helped carry a large wooden cross for several blocks.

Here's a glimpse into what happened. There will be much more here on CatholicReview.org in the coming days. Be sure to listen to the Cardinal O'Brien's message to young people as well.
