

Video: Fourth grade students talk Lent and Operation Rice Bowl

By Matt Palmer

mpalmer@CatholicReview.org

Churches were packed for Ash Wednesday Masses, as Catholics observed the start of Lent. I decided to go to St. Michael the Archangel in Overlea to ask fourth graders there about what Lent meant to them and how it's changing their lives now.

They also took the time to explain their participation in one of Catholic Relief Services' major projects, Operation Rice Bowl.

You can watch their insights below. Tomorrow, we'll share what they've sacrificed for Lent.