What are you giving up for Lent?

It's the question still being asked every day. Some people are struggling with their sacrifice, while others aren't missing a beat.

So, during our video conversation with St. Michael the Archangel students in Overlea, we decided to ask how their 40 days are going just a week into Lent.

So far, so good is what we heard. Watch the video below and know that you can make it through your sacrifice, too.
