

(Video) The Musical Moments of World Youth Day in Madrid

Everywhere we turned, there was someone singing or playing music. It was an incredible experience and here's a short compilation I put together for The Catholic Review of some random music moments during the 10 days.