

Where will it end?

The deconstruction of Catholic teaching in Maryland continues under the guidance of our Catholic governor and his wife. Abortion and same-sex marriage may be legal, but they will never be moral. Future legislative sessions in Annapolis may well include full funding of stem-cell research, legalization of euthanasia and acceptance of human cloning. Our American culture is eerily noisy, while our pulpits are silent.

William J. Morley

Manchester