

Winners of the fifth grade prayer card contest

The first place winner of the fifth grade prayer card contest sponsored by the Serra Club of Baltimore and the Archdiocese of Baltimore Vocation Office was Evie Hoff from St. John School, Westminster. Evie received $100 and had her design printed on 10,000 prayer cards to be distributed around the archdiocese. Cecilia Rossi, parishioner of St. Michael, Frostburg, received $50 for her second place entry and Andrea Johnson of Mother Mary Lange School, Baltimore, took third place, receiving $25.

The Vocations office would like to congratulate all of the students who participated in this contest.
