

Bringing Good News

Acknowledgements

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” This quote from Paul’s letter to the Romans serves as inspiration for the title of our curriculum guidelines, “Bringing Good News.”

Everyday in our classrooms we have the opportunity to bring the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ to those with whom we come in contact. Our parents, our children, other faculty and staff members receive the Good News of Jesus Christ through our actions and our words.

Those called to share the faith in our religion classes have a double task. They have to ensure that faith is both “caught and taught.” Theirs is the joyful privilege of passing along church teaching, of resounding the Good News, of handing on the faith in a particular way. Our curriculum guidelines will serve them well in this task.

It is with the encouragement and guidance of Archbishop Edwin F. O’Brien that the Department of Catholic Schools and the Department of Evangelization present this curriculum. We are grateful for the many people who worked many hours to ensure that this curriculum would be in your hands.

Department of Evangelization:

- D. Scott Miller, Director, Youth and Young Adult Ministry
- Lauri Przybysz, Coordinator, Marriage and Family Life
- Ruth Puls, Director, Catechetical and Pastoral Formation
- Sr. Sally Russell, Coordinator, Curriculum and Catechist Formation

Office of the Archbishop

- Mark Pacione, Associate Director, Office of Research and Planning

Department of Catholic Schools:

- M. Margaret Dammeyer, Associate Superintendent of Curriculum and Professional Development

Committee Members Representing Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese of Baltimore:

- Danielle Adams, The Visitation Academy
- Barbara Aupperley, Our Lady of Hope/St. Luke School
- Christine Blake, Immaculate Heart of Mary School
- Isabel Blevins, St. Joseph School, Cockeysville
- Elise Buckner, St. Rose of Lima School
- Wendy Cottrell, Resurrection/St. Paul School
- Donna Gmurek, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School
- Danielle Holiday, Monsignor Slade Catholic School
- Betty Hunter, St. Margaret School

Bringing Good News

Acknowledgements

- Katie Jasinski, School of the Incarnation
- Deacon Jauquet, St. Mark School
- Jamie Long, Archbishop Curley High School
- Susan Marcher, St. Joseph School, Fullerton
- Susan Moran, St. Mary Elementary School, Annapolis
- Patty O'Brien, St. Stephen School
- Liz O'Donoghue, St. John Regional Catholic School
- Kristin Pinkowski, St. Joan of Arc School
- Kyle Rickbeil, Trinity School
- Lois Shutt, Our Lady of Victory School
- Cyrile Sincock, Institute of Notre Dame
- Linda Trump, Immaculate Conception School
- Cathy Weadon, St. John the Evangelist School, Severna Park

Contributors:

- Leslie Andrathy, former Associate Superintendent of Curriculum and Professional Development
- Sharon Bogusz, former Coordinator, Evangelization and Adult Ministry
- Joanne Haney, former Coordinator of Elementary and Sacramental Catechesis
- Mae Richardson, Coordinator, Pastoral Leadership Formation
- Michael Ruzicki, Coordinator, Adult and Sacramental Formation

Reviewer:

- Dr. Camille Brown, Associate Superintendent, School Leadership and Community Programs
- Rev. Jeffrey Dauses, Pastor, St. Andrew by the Bay Church

Our prayers are with all who use this work. May your students be inspired by the efforts you put in to enhancing and advancing these curriculum guidelines.

By agreement, no part of this publication may be reproduced and transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopy, recording, or any information storage and retrieval system without prior permission in writing from both the Archdiocese of Washington and the Archdiocese of Baltimore. Users of this publication are specifically prohibited from putting any part of this publication on the internet without written permission from the Archdioceses of Washington and Baltimore.