

Next Horizons:

That our Archdiocesan justice and service ministerial efforts related to youth and young adults reflects the call of Jesus, the urging of his Spirit, challenge of the prophets, and the living Tradition of the Church.

Micah 6:8:

return to team training in Catholic Social Teaching that provides peer leaders with the skills and language to de-brief/process service experiences with their peers.

Middle School Programming

Start early on Catholic Social Teaching Programming
* Hunger Fast programming named as a possibility

Launch:

“Youth Contact” equivalent launch with presentations not necessarily coming solely from DYYAM staff.

What Else?

Justice Action Week:

discern a distinctive message unique from other parish/school/regional work camp efforts.
* race relations named as a possibility

What Else?

CRS Young Adult Ambassadors:

train, equip, and empower young adults to serve as advocates regarding a specific CRS issue
* CoITan/Extractives named as a possibility

Service Learning Resources

offer resources to schools and confirmation programs equipping adults and youth to provide meaning to service experiences.

What Else?

Family Opportunities:

setting up parents to encourage a culture of service