Note the erratum to nos. 36 and 37 required by the Apostolic See in light of the Instruction Redemptionis sacramentum, number 105.

At the Preparation of the Gifts – NEW 36. The altar is prepared with corporal, purificator, Missal, and chalice (unless the chalice is prepared at a side table) by the deacon and servers. The gifts of bread and wine are brought forward by the faithful and received by the priest or deacon at a convenient place (cf. GIRM, no. 333). If one chalice is not sufficient for Holy Communion to be distributed under both kinds to the priest concelebrants or Christ’s faithful, several chalices are placed on a corporal on the altar in an appropriate place, filled with wine. It is praiseworthy that the main chalice be larger than the other chalices prepared for distribution.

At the Breaking of the Bread – NEW 37. As the Agnus Dei or Lamb of God is begun, the bishop or priest alone, or with the assistance of the deacon, and if necessary of concelebrating priests, breaks the Eucharistic bread. Other empty ciboria or patens are then brought to the altar if this is necessary. The deacon or priest places the consecrated bread in several ciboria or patens, if necessary, as are required for the distribution of Holy Communion. If it is not possible to accomplish this distribution in a reasonable time, the celebrant may call upon the assistance of other deacons or concelebrating priests.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON ENGLISH IN THE LITURGY

The International Commission on English in the Liturgy [ICEL] is a mixed commission of Catholic Bishops' Conferences in countries where English is used in the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy according to the Roman Rite. The purpose of the Commission is to prepare English translations of each of the Latin liturgical books and any individual liturgical texts in accord with the directives of the Holy See.

Become One Body, One Spirit in Christ. ICEL, projected 2010.
• This catechetical resource will be an interactive DVD on the text and music for the Roman Missal as well as a general catechesis on the Mass. It centers on five essays and uses video, texts, graphics, and music to help the user enrich their understanding and deepen their appreciation of the Eucharist. It is for individual or group use, private study or public catechesis.

GENERAL RESOURCES ON MASS

- A collection of reflections on key symbols, gestures, etc., from the Mass which originally appeared in Assembly.

  1. A Eucharistic Lexicon – Marcel Metzger.
  2. The Eucharist in the First Four Centuries – Enrico Mazza.
  5. The History of the Eucharistic Liturgy in Rome – Marcel Metzger.
  6. The Sacramentary of Paul VI – Marchael Witczak.
  7. The Roman Lectionary for Mass – Adrien Nocent, OSB.
  8. The Homily – Domenico Sartore, CSJ.
  10. The Eucharistic Celebration in the Non-Roman West – Gabriel Ramis.
  12. The Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts – Nicola Bux.
  13. The Viaticum – Philippe Rouillard, OSB.
  14. Questions about Specific Points – Adrien Nocent, OSB.
  15. Theology of Eucharistic Celebration – David N. Power, OMI.

- The purpose of the book is to “help achieve an objectively true and responsible celebration of the community Mass” through necessary study and reflection.

- Well written articles on many and various aspect of liturgy, ritual, sacraments, etc.

- “Introducing the history of worship from the perspective of the people’s experience suggests that we study those tangible aspects of the liturgy that have always been important to the experience of worship…[T]his book will focus on some of the primary symbols of the worship itself.”

- This work contains the newest editions of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal and the Institution Generalis Missalis Romani and in chapter by chapter fashion provides extensive commentary. It was developed under the auspices of the Catholic Academy of Liturgy and Cosponsored by the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions.

- Unit 4 treats the Mass in ten segments with content and questions.
- Other units on first things, the elements of liturgy, who does the liturgy?, days and seasons, and the rites of the Church.

- Start with “How to use—and not to use—this book.” Contain 10 chapters of homilies on essential elements of the Mass, reproducible bulletin inserts (long and short versions), reflection questions. Short resource list.

- Helps a parish achieve and communion rite in keeping with the vision of GIRM. Chapters are (1) the rite within the Mass; (2) the Lord’s Prayer; (3) sign of peace; (4) breaking of the bread; (5) the communion procession; (6) prayer after communion; (7) afterword; (8) appendix of reproducible handouts in English and Spanish.

- Presents ten models – or “lenses” – through which to explore and understand the Eucharistic Liturgy.

- The editor’s forward calls this a “magisterial distillation of liturgical history and commentary on the postconciliar reform.” The four major parts are (1) historical survey; (2) theology of the eucharistic sacrifice; (3) the liturgical form; (4) spiritual and pastoral aspects of the Mass. Footnotes, bibliography, indices.

- As noted in the promotional materials, “this book presents new perspectives on the Eucharistic celebration in a way that teaches us to fully engage in the Mass each week.”

- Impact of 11 key meals in Luke: “The gospel is about the kingdom of God, and the eucharist is the heart of the gospel.”

- A companion to The Communion Rite at Sunday Mass. This book “intends to show what eucharistic praying entails and how it could be done every Sunday” Chapters treat (1) context; (2) roots and evolution of eucharistic praying; (3) recovery of eucharistic praying; (4) elements of EP; (5) assembly’s role; (6) presider’s role; (7) preparation rite; (8) how do we get there?; (9) future. Bulletin insert in English and Spanish.

- A collection of Nathan Mitchell’s essays from issues of Assembly.

- Covers: (1) Eucharist in the Catechism of the Catholic Church; (2) scriptural connections between Jesus and Eucharist; (3) sacramental presence. Excellent annotated bibliography.

- Helpful notes and ideas on how to teach the meaning of Mass to children.
- Current book for children will need revision to conform to the new translation.

- A very solid exploration of the history of the liturgical reform specifically in regard to sacred music.

- Has many references to liturgical and ritual books and several planning sheets in the appendix.
- Section II addresses the Roman Missal.

- A brief commentary on the GIRM.

- Gives helpful explanations for the main rubrics for Sunday Mass; addresses Mass by bringing together information from various documents and the several places within the GIRM for each rite.

- A series of eight pamphlets that give a solid overview of the revision of the Roman Missal.
- Pamphlet titles: Why and How are the Mass Texts Being Revised?; The Introductory Rites; The Gloria and the Liturgy of the Word; The Profession of Faith; The Liturgy of the Eucharist; The Eucharistic Prayer; The Mystery of Faith; The Communion and Concluding Rites.

- A short book for the parish committee or study groups. Begins with What is the Liturgical Assembly? and the Role of Sunday. Then treats liturgical prayer, ministers, the singing assembly, spirituality, space, environment, children, and American culture.
- Each short chapter is organized by historical and theological perspective, documentation, and study questions.
GENERAL RESOURCES ON LITURGY AND CATECHESIS

- Introduction, section 1. A Vision for the National Directory for Catechesis;
- Chapter 5. Catechesis in a Worshiping Community.

FDLC. Liturgical Catechesis. Free web-based catechetical resources on liturgy and sacraments can be found at www.fdlc.org by following the link to Liturgy Resources. New resources added regularly.

- Uses seven essential concepts of (1) the paschal mystery, (2) liturgy as “summit and source” of the Church’s life, (3) full, active, and conscious participation, (4) ecclesiology, (5) inculturation, (6) renewal of the liturgical books, music, art, and artifacts of the liturgy, and (7) education and formation to address the constitution, the implementation, and the state of the questions. Bibliography and index.
- Part of a larger series on most of the documents of the Second Vatican Council.

- A help to beginners and established parish committees; chapters include: back to basics, let’s stop planning liturgies, speaking of liturgy, living the tradition, negotiating the rite, spirituality and liturgical ministry, reflections for liturgical ministers, and blessing and dismissal.

- Six audio CDs with booklets weaving music and reflection that invites the listener in to the Mass; using a mystagogical method.
- CDs: (1) The Body Gathers; (2) Become What You Pray; (3) Become What You Eat; (4) God in Peace; (5) The Word Resounds; (6) Blessed Be God Forever.

- Page 8 contains “A CATECHETICAL METHOD: Mystagogical Catechesis in the Session for Christian Formation" of five steps: initial reflection, deeper reflection, sharing church teaching, conclusion, and closing prayer. This page alone is worth the price of the book.

- Short chapters by noted authors on topics related to the work of whole community catechesis that “calls us to a new way of doing business…in both proclaiming Jesus as Lord and in presenting his Good News.

• Chapters in Section 1 contrasts (1) the “schoolhouse framework (2) with one of whole community catechesis.
• Section 2 addresses the nuts and bolts of (3) linking liturgy and catechesis, (4) Making Christ Jesus (more) the center of catechesis, (5) making the household the focus of catechesis, and (6) catechesis assemblies and other fine ideas. Eight appendices support the efforts outlined in Section 2.

• The introduction and chapters on Mystagogy as Method and Paying Attention are key to grasping the mystagogical vision and method. Chapter 10 is on Eucharist.
• Remaining chapters on Christian initiation of adults, infant baptism, confirmation, marriage and vocation, reconciliation, pastoral care of the sick, and funerals. Short bibliography for each chapter.

• 25 chapters gathered in these parts: (1) Proclaiming the mystery of sign, symbol and ritual; (2) Proclaiming the mystery of the Church at prayer; (3) Proclaiming the mystery of the Eucharistic liturgy; and (4) Proclaiming the mystery of the liturgical year.
• A chapter, in treating a topic, gives examples from life experience and cites documents. In concludes with (a) suggestions for ministry and daily living and (b) questions for reflection and discussion for liturgical ministers, for catechists, for RCIA, and for general adult audiences/daily living.

• Embraces the marriage of liturgy and catechesis; uses Groome’s Shared Christian Praxis to outline the program. Part II covers various aspects of liturgy: space, environment, time, feasts and seasons, action, objects used, speech, and song.

• Contains 25 short chapters on topics as alleluia, silence, various postures and gesture, incense, etc. used in prayer. Introduction suggests how to use the contents for catechesis and preaching. Index connects topics to the Lectionary for Mass.
- Addresses What is it, who is it for, what does it look like; as well as these three moments – catechesis for the liturgy, celebrating the liturgy, and catechesis from the liturgy

- Both editions grant permission to reproduce the 18 sessions; 3 pages each with discussion questions.
- To immerse the entire pastoral team in both the concepts and methods of liturgical catechesis.
