LECTURE: EVERYTHING HAPPENS FOR A REASON? REALLY?

Everything Happens for a Reason? Really? You've heard it, you've been told it, you may have even said it on occasion. "Everything happens for a reason." At first glance, this bit of pop theology may sound like the celebrated Ignatian ideal of "Finding God in all Things." But how similar are these ideas, really? What do they suggest about God, about our relationship with God, and about how we make sense of our own story? St. Ignatius Catholic Community in Baltimore will hold a lecture on these very issues on Monday, April 4 at 7:30 PM with Fr. Timothy O'Brien, S.J. O'Brien is a Jesuit scholastic of the Maryland Province. After completing a master's degree in theology at the University of Chicago Divinity School, he began teaching at Loyola University Maryland in 2014. Tim is a writer and editor at The Jesuit Post. Join us in this season of Easter as we consider the mysteries of suffering and resurrection -- and making meaning of both -- in our own lives. There is no cost for this event. Location: St. Ignatius Catholic Community 740 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202.

This lecture will look at the working relationship of God and Moses in the drama of Exodus 1-15. Location: St. Ignatius Catholic Community 740 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. TALK WITH YOUR LOVED ONES ON END-OF-LIFE ISSUES

Illness and death – whether our own or that of a loved one – are issues many of us avoid thinking and talking about until they are immediately confronting us. Too often we are unprepared for the questions that arise, and find ourselves making difficult decisions in the midst of a crisis, without the benefit of time and reflection. Maryland's bishops have released a pastoral letter, Comfort and Consolation, on care for the sick and dying to encourage Catholics to take that time now, before facing a crisis, so that when illness and death inevitably come, we can face them with the comfort and peace of understanding our faith, and knowing our Lord is there to embrace us in our hour of need. Visit the Maryland Catholic Conference at www.md cathcon.org/comfort for downloading copies or to order.
