What you need to know.

You can use up to $10,000 per year per Beneficiary for K-12 tuition.

For K-12 distributions, distribution checks are made payable directly to the Account Holder or Beneficiary, and not to the K-12 institution.*

If you are a Maryland taxpayer, you may receive an annual deduction of up to $2,500 from your state adjusted gross income per Beneficiary for contributions to the MCIP, regardless of whether the contribution will be put toward qualified K-12 tuition or other qualified expenses.

Using your MCIP Account to pay for K-12 tuition may be something to consider, especially if you have enough saved to fund both K-12 and college education for your child. Keep in mind that you can accumulate a maximum Account balance of up to $500,000 per Beneficiary effective December 1, 2018.

You do not need to notify T. Rowe Price or the State of Maryland of your intent to use your MCIP funds for K-12 tuition.

To use your Account funds for K-12 tuition, simply log in to your Account. You can also call us at 888.4MD.GRAD (463.4723) or complete the distribution form found on our website.

If you are not a Maryland resident, you should discuss your state's tax treatment of K-12 distributions with a qualified tax advisor.

If you choose to use your MCIP Account to fund K-12 tuition, now may be a good time to evaluate your investment strategy. You'll want to be sure that your asset allocation matches your new time line for using your funds.

If you choose to use funds from your MCIP Account for K-12 tuition, you will receive an IRS Form 1099-Q. As with any 529 distribution, it is the Account Holder's responsibility to maintain adequate records and receipts showing the eligibility of the expense. If you have detailed tax questions, please consult with your tax advisor.

You may change your investment options twice per calendar year, per Beneficiary. If you have multiple investment options for a Beneficiary, all changes for that Beneficiary must be requested on the same day. This can be done by logging in to your Account. You can also make the change using the Investment Exchange Form or by calling 888.4MD.GRAD (463.4723).

Start early and involve friends and family. With a MCIP Account, it's easy to give the gift of education by using the GoTuitionSM gifting portal link. Visit Maryland529.com/Gift to learn more.
