

PROMISE TO PROTECT:

BY THE NUMBERS

Over the years, the Archdiocese of Baltimore has reported hundreds of incidents of potential child sexual abuse to law enforcement, settled claims with more than one hundred survivors through our voluntary mediation program, and the Archdiocese's publicly available "List of Priests and Brothers Accused of Child Sexual Abuse" includes the names of 150 individuals.

We train everyone to prevent and report abuse.

29,656 adults trained
35,527 children trained

We provide outreach to those abused.

$363,607 funds paid in fiscal year
2021 for counseling and other direct support to survivors and their families.

We require background screenings.

4,795 screenings for clergy,
religious and employees
24,861 screenings for volunteers

VICTIMS ASSISTANCE LINE: 886-417-7469

Or

THE OFFICE OF CHILD AND YOUTH PROTECTION: 410-547-5348

Source: Independent Review Board 2021 Annual Report

ARCHDIOCESE of BALTIMORE