

WWII section failed to recognize all

Thank you for the recent section, "Remembering World War II" (CR, May 24). All those who served in that war deserve our gratitude. Sadly, there are two groups whose time in uniform during that war has been often unrecognized: women and racial minorities.

How unfortunate that the Catholic Review forgot them as well.